OKLAHOMA COMMISSIONER TAKES CHARGE OF INTERNATIONAL BANK OF COALGATE.

MONEY READY FOR DEPOSITORS

First Application of New Law Guaranteeing Money Intrusted to State Insured Institution.

Guthrie, Ok., May 21.—State Bank Commissioner Smock is in charge of the affairs of the International bank of Coalgate under orders of the State Banking Board given this afternoon.

It is alleged that the institution was being conducted in violation of the State law, which guarantees deposits in state and other insured banks. In what particulars the State board was not informed.

It was announced by members of the board that a State examiner had been there inspecting the bank for several days, and was joined yesterday by the Commissioner.

Board's Statement.

At 2:15 o'clock this afternoon Commissioner Smock notified the board he had closed the bank, and forty minutes later the board had assembled and adopted a resolution sustaining his action of which the following is a certified copy:

"The Bank Commissioner, H. H. Smock, reported to the Banking Board that he had closed the International Bank of Coalgate at 2:15 p. m., May 21, for the reason that the bank officials were grossly violating the banking laws of the State. There is claimed to be between $37,000 and $38,000 of deposits which he is immediately proceeding to prove up. He finds about $9,000 cash on hand and about $7,000 additional available deposited in other banks.

Money for All Depositors.

"It is moved by C. N. Haskell, seconded by J. H. Connors, that the Bank Commissioners now present at Coalgate be directed to proceed immediately to pay off any approved depositors requesting payment of deposits to them, drawing upon the cash on hand, all available in other banks and for any deficiency upon the treasurer of this board be requested to go at once to Coalgate and render the Bank Commissioner any assistance that the treasurer finds proper to cause the immediate payment of all depositors desiring their money."

"Guthrie, Ok., May 21.—I hereby certify that the above is a true and correct copy of a resolution this day adopted by the State Banking Board in closed session.

"ROY C. OAKES,

"Secretary State Banking Board," Guaranty Law in Operation.

State Treasurer Menefee, who is also treasurer of the Banking Board, left tonight for Coalgate, and will furnish what money is needed to complete the payment of the depositors.

This is the initial instance of the working of the state depositors' guaranty law, passed by the legislature early in the session, and which attracted no little attention throughout the business and financial world.

A provision of the law makes it mandatory upon the State Bank Commissioner to assume charge of a State or other insured bank found either to be in an unsafe condition or operated in violation of the law. The International Bank of Coalgate held certificate No. 104, issued by the State Banking Board.

The last statement of the bank was not available here today. A previous statement, however, shows it to be in what bankers term good condition, with $33,000 capital, surplus and profits $2,900, deposits approximately $40,000 cash and in sight exchange $16,000, and loans approximately $50,000. The reports also show Dr. L. A. Connor to be president and L. Elzy cashier.

WEATHER.

Showers tonight and Saturday.

GRADUATED LAND TAX BILL IS PASSED BY OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE MEASURE

Income Tax and Inheritance Tax Bills Go to the Governor—Relief for Storm Victims.

Guthrie, Ok., May 21.—The graduated land tax bill, being the fourth of the main tax measures handled by the legislature, successfully weathered a storm in the senate today, after a healthy effort had been made to kill it. Twice the bill lay on the brink of the grave, but was pulled away for the reason, as expressed by Senator Johnson of Fort Cobb, it would cost more to initiate the law through the people, as has been threatened, than to permit it to go through the courts for judicial test. This turned several votes in the bill's favor. The bill, which places a tax upon all land held in excess of 640 acres, was considerably abbreviated in the graduation of the tax before the Senate came to a final vote. From 640 to 1,280 acres of average taxable land the tax is one-fourth of 1 per cent to 3,000 acres, 1 per cent to 5,000 acres 2 per cent, to 10,000 acres 5 per cent, all in excess of 10,000 acres of average taxable land 10 per cent. The tax was not carried higher, as Senator Russell, managing the bill in the senate, explained it would be prohibitive and that was all the supporters of the bill desired. For the purpose of the law $20 per acre is construed as the average value of Oklahoma land, and as much as 320 acres is exempted from the tax, regardless of value.

A tax is levied upon all lease excesses also. There is exempted 640 acres, but in excess of that amount and to 1,280 acres the tax is 1 per cent "upon all of the incomes, rents and profits to him accruing."

To 2,500 acres 3 per cent, to 5,000 acres 5 per cent and in excess of that amount 10 per cent. Final passage of the bill was realized by a vote of 23 to 21, but a motion to reconsider and lay on the table, which would have ended the matter, failed by a vote of 22 to 22. The vote upon the reconsideration was also 22 to 22, and Lieut. Gov. Bellamy, presiding, voted in the affirmative, which (Continued on Page Two.)

Brought the bill back into the senate. On the second attempt Senator Johnson of Fort Cobb, who had been opposing the measure, stated he believed the principle possessed merit and for the additional reason given above, voted in the affirmative.

Senator Russell acted as messenger, bearing the measure to the house, where it was immediately brought up for concurrence, and this prevailed by a vote of 72 to 17.

Bills to Governor.

The income tax, gross revenue tax and the inheritance tax bills, all by Representative Anthony of Stephens County, were delivered to the governor's office by the author tonight. Mr. Anthony estimates the taxes to be derived from the gross revenue bill based upon the senate's changes will be about $413,000. Of this the railroads will pay $100,000, car companies $10,000, express companies $6,500, pipe lines $8,000, telegraph companies $10,000, telephone companies $2,500, coal companies $120,000, from other minerals, including asphaltum, $125,000; derived from a 2 per cent tax placed upon insurance companies by the constitution, bringing the total revenue to about $540,000 annually.

The income tax bill covers all classes of income above 3,500 not taxed by the gross revenue provisions, but without statistics of information, an estimate of the revenue to be derived from his source, Mr. Anthony says, would be the wildest guess.

The same is true of the inheritance bill, which imposes a tax of 1 per cent on all sums left by bequest to widows or wives in excess of $10,000 and to children in excess of $5,000. The tax is graduated then to $150,000 bequests. After desultory consideration covering about three weeks the house finally passed the Fisher bill, disposing of all the Oklahoma public lands, amounting to 3,100,000 acres. Sale of the land is not to begin until after appraisement has been made and then residence of two years is required before title may be obtained. Much of the bill is the Murray substitute, which the house on two occasions voted down. Only three votes were recorded against the bill on final passage. It is predicted tonight that the senate will favorably consider the measure before adjournment. The normal school question was settled tonight as far as the senate is concerned, when the house bill creating two additional normal schools on the eastern side of the state was passed finally in place of the Memminger bill, authorizing the Board of Normal Regents to locate there three temporary schools. A motion to increase the schools to three failed by a vote of 23 to 21. The bill finally passed by a vote of 32 to 12, but the emergency clause was beaten.

Notice to Ice Consumers.

The management of the Ada Ice and Fuel Co. request us to state that some of the patrons were unintentionally overlooked yesterday, and especially those in the south part of town is an apology due. The demand for ice was much greater than anticipated, and not having their own wagons, were compelled to inconvenience the public to some extent. However, the force is doubled today and it is hoped every body will be supplied, but should they not, the management will appreciate it if you notify them. It takes some little time to get routes established and everything working smoothly, but the company is doing everything possible to get straightened out as soon as possible. The company is furnishing patrons with cards to hang out when ice is wanted. If you haven't a card ask the driver for one. Hang it out where he can see it, and you will always be sure of ice. Help the company get started off right and it will help you as well.

The Vanishing Fleets

BY ROY NORTON.

Outside the hissing air was torn by a whirlwind of small shells fired in a panic-stricken attempt to fend off this adversary which was driving downward upon the Ito. It was their last hope at defense. They had tested their guns repeatedly at long range, and proved them ineffectual against an enemy that could travel with a speed beside which that of the swiftest bird of prey was insignificant. They had watched those strange uncanny things lift themselves to a prodigious altitude with incomparable ease, carry away and rejuvenate a wounded companion which had been struck by the merest chance, turn toward each other as if in communication, whirl out in long lines betokening the perfection of control, had waited for a downpour of missiles; and then, when amazement at this marvelous demonstration had reached its climax, they had witnessed the sudden swoop in their direction. Now in hopeless impotence the men on the deck of the doomed Ito lost their heads and ran frantically to and fro. Up to the very last, one or two of the gun crews elevated and fired—elevated and fired—with methodical precision like men in a trance and actuated by habit only.

The panic-stricken swallow vainly winging his way through the air in wild endeavor to escape the talons of the darting hawk would have had more chance than they before this onslaught. This gigantic embodiment of doom was leaping down upon them with such terrific velocity and at such an angle of flight as to preclude all possibility of defense. Irresistible, implacable, and noiseless, it was plunging for the final thrust. Its very method of attack was so surprising and so unexpected that they were awed with fear, helpless, benumbed, despairing and conquered. They were men done to death and suffering the agonies of wounds before the blow had fallen. It was all accomplished with such rapidity that not even the most terrified had time to rush to the rails and throw himself into the sea. When the instant of death seemed imminent, they were paralyzed into inaction and cowered together, waiting for the shock of annihilation.

And their suspense, although of a different nature, was scarcely more keen and heartbreaking than that of those in the radiplane which was hurtling at them.

The admiral was still crouching like a man prepared for a blow, when Norma with quick energy tilted over another lever and checked the descent. Those within the shell felt their hearts come back to the normal and were once more able to breathe freely. It was like the application of a powerful brake to a falling elevator, save that there was no abrupt jar, no discordant sound of steel on steel, and no shock of friction.

"Look out! Look out!" they heard her call. "Hold fast! We're going to strike!"

DRUGGISTS ELECT AT SULPHUR.

Convention Chooses Officers, Suggests Names for Examining Board and Play Ball Against Drummers.

Sulphur, Ok., May 21.—The second day of the Druggists' convention was given chiefly to the reading and discussion of papers. At the election of officers this afternoon H. D. Knisely of Checotah was chosen president. M. M. Hays of Quinton was made first vice president, Claude Powell of Stillwater designated as second vice president, and W. H. McCutchen of Luther named secretary. The meeting then re-elected H. C. Cobb of Muskogee to be treasurer.

Board Members Proposed.

Ten names were submitted to Gov. Haskell for approval as members of the examining board. A telegram was sent to the house remonstrating against the passage of any drug bill except the original—House bill No. 134.

The ladies entertained with a reception, serving refreshments.

Ball Game a Tie. The ball game between the retail druggists and the traveling men this evening was enjoyed more than any other game of the season. The rooting especially was good. The score was a tie, 27 to 27.

Cake Sale.

Tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon the W. C. T. U. ladies will have another cake sale at Gwin-Mays store. The sale will be conducted by Mrs. Chauncey and Mrs. Haynes, from 4 to 6 o'clock. This will give the ladies of the town opportunity to buy nice cakes for Sunday.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else. It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop to the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought these various and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without this original and highly vital knowledge, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

TO AILING WOMEN.

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer.

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the urine when the kidneys are well are retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys and bladder get inflamed and swollen, crowding the delicate female organs nearby and sometimes displacing them. This is the true cause of many bearing-down pains, lameness, backache, sideache, etc. Uric poisoning also causes headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pains.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that cures sick kidneys. You will get better as the kidneys get better, and health will return when the kidneys are well.

Mrs. E. Rash, residing at 206 West Second street, Oklahoma City, Okla., says: "I suffered very much from my kidneys failing to perform their functions properly. My back was very lame and at times I was laid up with it for days. I was weighed down with languor and depression and suffered from annoying irregularities of the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice and procured them. They soon relieved the aching and lameness in my back and rendered the secretions normal. I have every confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills. I cheerfully give them my endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Forster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

The White Narcissus.

"If I could only live among beautiful things as you do, I believe I could be good!" exclaimed a tired farmer's daughter to a city friend, whose two rooms were filled with photographs and books. The friend could but make the well-worn explanation that the sky outside the kitchen window is actually more beautiful than the photograph of Corot's vision of a sky, and that the fields, green or white, and the flowers and birds are more truly poetry than the verses of Wordsworth or Keats. Beneath the cry of the soul hungry for beautiful things is the desire for real ownership, says Youth's Companion. The cloud may be seen by a thousand eyes, but it escapes the hand which would hold it. Meadow and stream in the picture bring their message of beauty with deepened emphasis, all the year round, because they are fairly captured by the artist. Our civilization has yet to learn from the reflective east that the luxury of beauty is a necessity for human life. Without it the spirit starves, and suffers from restlessness and irritation and inefficiency, as one suffers from insufficient physical nourishment. Mohammed put into words a great symbolic truth when he said to his disciples, "If any man have two loaves, let him sell one and buy some flowers of the white narcissus; for the one is food for the body and the other is food for the soul."

Cheering Reading.

Records of averted disasters do not get the attention that is given to disasters unaverted, but they make more cheerful reading and lift one's faith in human nature. The other day a Long Island Sound steamer caught fire, and there might have been another horror like the burning of the General Slocum. But there was no loss of life, no panic. The pilots kept the steamer steady, the captain fought the fire in orderly manner, summoned help, and transferred 600 passengers to another steamer. At a children's entertainment in a New York church gauzy draperies took fire, flames shot to the ceiling and burning bits fell on the children. The audience sprang up, but the little king of the play justified his regal part. He cried, "What are you all scared about? It's just a little fire." Meanwhile a boy at the organ was playing "Onward Christian Soldiers." During the flurry he did not miss a note. Two men stamped the fire out. Others opened the doors and started to marshal the women and children. Most of the people kept their places, and there was no panic.

The recent burning of the town hall and other buildings in Guayaquil, Ecuador, with a view to check the progress of the bubonic plague, suggests that many a structure in another place invites annihilation for similar purposes. There are "tuberculosis blocks" in New York city, tenements so saturated with the disease that an occupant is almost certain to be stricken. In Paris the municipal council has just discovered that several hundred dwellings in the working-class districts are dangerous for the same reason. There are notorious "cancer houses" in Lincolnshire, England; there is at least one "plague tenement" in Bombay, India; and it is recorded that Amber, the ancient capital of the Indian state of Jaipur, had to be depopulated and deserted because it was so completely infected with leprosy. To all such dwellings of death the Guayaquil treatment should be applied. Any municipality could better afford to pay the cost of replacing a disease-ridden building than to let it stand and take a perpetual toll of lives.

Under the law, immigrants who are admitted are on probation for three years. If in that time they become public charges, commit misdemeanors, or profess anarchy, they may be deported. The department of commerce and labor intends to make practical application of this law, with the help of the police, to anarchists and others who pass the entrance examinations and later turn out badly.

Lord Cromer's book on Egypt, which has recently been published, is a great work, like Grant's "Memoirs" and Caesar's "Gallic War." When men of action tell in simple language what they have done, they enliven history and give insights to literature. Lord Cromer's work has won him the nickname, "The Great Prose Consul."

Two young British lords are to be sent to school at an American university. Perhaps prudent British peers are thinking it wise to send their sons to grow up with the country and catch the heifesses before other scions of nobility have a chance to see the heifers first.

The greatest heat is never found on the equator, but some ten degrees to the north, while more severe cold has been registered in northern Siberia than has been found near the Pole.

SURPRISE SURELY A REAL ONE.

Crowning Glory of an Evening in the Life of Rev. Mr. Brough.

Something had to be done. Rev. Mr. Brough had been pastor of Hardsburg church for 25 years, and the anniversary was to be properly celebrated. Hardsburg was a small place. The church was small and the people were poor, but after much consultation it was decided to give the aged couple a surprise donation party. It was a real donation party, with a barrel of flour, a sack of yams, a side of bacon, a ham and all the other luxuries of Hardsburg life. And, as a crowning feature, Deacon Rogers, who had just introduced electric lights into the village, had the parsonage wired as a gift to the church, and agreed to turn on the lights on the evening of the donation.

To make it all complete he left the parson without knowledge that the wiring was finished and installed a switch on the outer wall by which every light in the house could be thrown on at once. Then, in the dusk of a hot autumn evening the members of the Hardsburg church brought their gifts to the minister's door.

The parsonage was dark. Not even a candle glimmered from the window. Parson Brough and his wife had the good habit of sitting quietly in the dark on such evenings, resting their eyes and discussing the affairs of the day.

Cautiously, quietly, the supplies were carried to the foot of the front steps; quietly the parishioners were arranged in a semi-circle in front of the parlor windows, and then, in the darkness, Deacon Rogers swiftly tipped up to the switch, and with a quick turn threw on every light in the house.

The surprise was a grand success. From the parson's sitting-room came a quick gasp and an exclamation of dismay. The callers, waiting outside, had a glimpse of two well-known forms scurrying away through the glaring light, from room to room, vainly seeking a place of retreat. And in the parlor, beside two still rocking easy chairs, stood four battered shoes and two pairs of neatly-darned stockings. Rev. Mr. Brough had been completely surprised.

Great Men Not Arithmeticians.

In a recent trial a San Francisco judge made arithmetic a test of mental soundness. But if this test had been applied to certain great men they would have been declared imbeciles. Dean Stanley, eminent author and divine, for one, would have been set down as hopeless had he been judged by his incapacity to do a sum in simple addition or multiplication. Had Keble, writer of famous hymns, depended upon his arithmetic Oxford would not long have known him. When bursar he found, to his horror, that certain accounts came out nearly $10,000 to the bad. In vain did the learned and pious men of the college go over the figures with him. Not until an expert was summoned was it discovered that Keble, in casting up a column, had added the date of the year to the college's debts.

Done For.

"With Eddie Foy," said a tragedian, "I made, the other Sunday, an excursion into the country. The country, fresh and green, was beautiful in the April sunshine. An old man and his daughter, a girl of 18, had a little booth where you threw baseballs at dolls, getting a cigar for every hit."

"Foy throws phenomenally well, and he had soon won 20 cigars. These he presented with a courtly bow to the young girl."

"Thanks," said she, smiling prettily, "they'll do for father."

"Last Sunday Foy and I made the same excursion again. The booth stood in the same spot, but now the girl was running it alone."

"Ah," said Foy, "they've done for father."

To Catch Cockroaches.

A florist has discovered by accident a new way to catch cockroaches. A pint fruit jar containing a scrap of bacon happened to be left over night in one of his greenhouses. Next morning a dozen or more cockroaches were vainly trying to climb the slippery sides of the glass jar. The florist has succeeded in ridding his establishment of these repulsive creatures, which formerly ate such high priced plants as orchids and gardenias.

It is necessary to paste a piece of paper on the outside of the jar so that the insects can get sufficient foothold to climb up into the trap. In the original case the label of the manufacturer supplied this need.

Devotes Life to Good Works.

Mrs. Charles M. Alexander, an English woman of birth and fortune, is the leader of a band of women who are aiding a monster evangelical crusade in Philadelphia. Unlike many women of wealth, she prefers a life of sacrifice and endeavor to the whirl of social gaiety. She is accompanied by her husband in her visit to the United States, and intends to remain here some months.

Taking No Chances.

A farmer who took much pride in the looks of his fattening pigs once purchased a pair from a neighbor. Upon delivery at the usual age of eight weeks, they seemed to him rather small.

Eying them dubiously, he remarked, dryly: "Guess I had better keep the cat shut up for a few days."—Youth's Companion.

COMPLAINTS ABOUT PAINT.

The time to complain about paint is before the painter applies it. The man who puts up the money should not shirk the responsibility of choosing the paint. True, the painter ought to know paint better than the banker, the professional man or the merchant. The trouble is, the house-owner too often deliberately bars the competent and honest painter from the job by accepting a bid which he ought to know would make an honest job impossible.

Secure your bids on the basis of National Lead Company's pure White Lead and pure Linseed Oil and see that you get these materials.

No one need be fooled by adulterated white lead. A blowpipe testing outfit will be mailed to anyone interested in paint.

A New Definition.

Senator Harte, who has introduced at Albany a bill against the sale and manufacture of cigarettes, has many original views. These he has the talent to express in terse and striking terms.

Discussing medicine, in which he places none too great faith, Senator Harte said neatly at a recent Albany banquet:

"Medicine is the art of amusing the patient while nature cures the disease."

You Would Not Accept Counterfeit Money, Why Accept Counterfeit Goods?

Good money is made by the Government in which you have implicit faith and confidence. Good goods are made by manufacturers who are willing to stake their reputations on the quality of the material offered to you through the medium of their advertisements in this paper. Counterfeit goods are not advertised. The reason for it is they will not bear the close scrutiny to which genuine advertised goods are subjected. Counterfeit money pays more profit to the counterfeiter. Counterfeit goods are offered to you for the same reason.

Insist on the Genuine—Reject the Counterfeit.

How He Got Rid of Rats.

A farmer describes his method of clearing the premises of rats in the following manner: "On a large number of old shingles I put a half-teaspoonful of treacle each, and on that with my pocket knife I scraped a small amount of concentrated lye. I then placed the old shingles around under the stable floors and under the cribs. The next morning I found 40 dead rats, and the rest left the farm for parts unknown. I have cleared many farms of the pests in the same way, and have never known it to fail."

Counting a Billion.

Speaking of counting the hairs of your head—suppose you undertook to count a billion, how long do you think it would take you to do it? A billion, according to the French notation, which we follow, is a thousand millions. If you had before you a pile of silver dollars containing a million, and could count one every second, for eight hours every day, it would take you 35 days to complete the task. But suppose you undertook to count a thousand of those million-dollar piles—you would be at work eight hours a day for 35,000 days, or about 100 years.

CHANGE IN FOOD

Works Wonders in Health.

It is worth knowing that a change in food can cure dyspepsia. "I deem it my duty to let you know how Grape-Nuts food has cured me of indigestion. I had been troubled with it for years, until last year my doctor recommended Grape-Nuts food to be used every morning. I followed instructions and now I am entirely well."

"The whole family like Grape-Nuts, we use four packages a week. You are welcome to use this testimonial as you see fit."

The reason this lady was helped by the use of Grape-Nuts food, is that it is pre-digested by natural processes and therefore does not tax the stomach as the food she had been using; it also contains the elements required for building up the nervous system. If that part of the human body is in perfect working order, there can be no dyspepsia, for nervous energy represents the steam that drives the engine.

When the nervous system is run down, the machinery of the body works badly. Grape-Nuts food can be used by small children as well as adults. It is perfectly cooked and ready for instant use.

DESERVED TO WIN HIS CASE.

Really Able Argument Put Forward by Accused Sailor.

A very good story has recently been told in the fleet of an incident which happened when Admiral Evans was in command of the Indiana. An old-time bluejacket was at the mast before Capt. Evans, charged with getting food out of a mess chest outside of meal hours. This getting of food for night watches is a common and strong desire on the part of most men aboard ship.

Capt. Evans asked the man what he had to say; and the man, sizing up the delicate situation, said:

"Captain, I didn't take no food out of that chest. Why, captain, there weren't no food in that chest! I looked in that chest, and, captain, I met a cockroach coming out of that chest with tears in his eyes."—Harper's Weekly.

What is Pe-ru-na?

Is it a Catarrh Remedy, or a Tonic, or is it Both?

Some people call Peruna a great tonic. Others refer to Peruna as a great catarrh remedy.

Which of these people are right? Is it more proper to call Peruna a catarrh remedy than to call it a tonic?

Our reply is, that Peruna is both a tonic and a catarrh remedy. Indeed, there can be no effectual catarrh remedy that is not also a tonic.

In order to thoroughly relieve any case of catarrh, a remedy must not only have a specific action on the mucous membrane affected by the catarrh, but it must have a general tonic action on the nervous system.

Catarrh, even in persons who are otherwise strong, is a weakened condition of some mucous membrane. There must be something to strengthen the circulation, to give tone to the arteries, and to raise the vital forces.

Perhaps no vegetable remedy in the world has attracted so much attention from medical writers as HYDRASTIS CANADENSIS. The wonderful efficacy of this herb has been recognized many years, and is growing in its hold upon the medical profession. When joined with CUBEBS and COPAIBA a trio of medical agents is formed in Peruna which constitutes a specific remedy for catarrh that in the present state of medical progress cannot be improved upon. This action, reinforced by such renowned tonics as COLLINSONIA CANADENSIS, CORYDALIS FORMOSA and CEDRON SEED, ought to make this compound an ideal remedy for catarrh in all its stages and locations in the body.

From a theoretical standpoint, therefore, Peruna is beyond criticism. The use of Peruna, confirms this opinion. Numberless testimonials from every quarter of the earth furnish ample evidence that this judgment is not over enthusiastic. When practical experience confirms a well-grounded theory the result is a truth that cannot be shaken.
